Complaint of New York Foundling Hospital Dismissed for Want of Jurisdiction-West Virginia Law Against Foreign Corporations Is Sustained as Constitutional.

With but one dissenting voice-that of Justice McKenna-the Supreme Court yesterday decided that Moyer, Haywood, and Pettibone, held in the Bolse jail, may d'Alene strike, about eight years ago. He was killed by an explosion of a bomb at til 1911. the gateway to his door-yard, December

Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of Moyer, Haywood, and Pettibone on the charge that they were fugitives been held. Their attorneys contended that their removal from Colorado to Idaho was kidnapping; that their constitutional rights had been ignored, and that the court should order their return to Colorado.

Justice Harlan, in presenting the majority opinion of the court, held that the men had been taken by requisitiion; that even if the authorities acted hastily or inconsiderately what had been done was not of such a nature as deprived the men of their constitutional rights, and as they had been reguarly indicted in Idaho they should be held there for trial.

Baltimore, Dec. 3.—Dr. William Osler, regius professor of medicine at Oxford University, England, who resigned the chair of medicine in the Johns Hopkins University two years ago to accept the English appointment at the hands of King Edward VII, is expected to arrive in Baltimore next Friday from Europe.

The distinguished physician and Mrs. Osler will probably remain in Baltimore until the following Wednesday, when they will go North to Toronto to spend the Chair of the Committen of th
